Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back and Happy New Year.

As you maybe aware, we are relaunching our Healthy Eating and Exercise initiative as we all know that this is so important for every child. We would like to invite you to a Zoom meeting led by Mr. Evans and the senior leadership team when we will present the latest information on school dinners and packed lunches and share our strategies for increasing physical activity for all children.. The meeting will take place on Tuesday 18th January 5:00pm-6:00pm. With your help, we hope to be able to work together to improve the health and well-being of our children.
