Dear Parents/Carers,

Changes to Data Protection Law

You may be aware that from May 2018, data protection rules are changing. 'General Data Protection Regulation' (GDPR) changes how we can use your personal data and keep it safe. It will also strengthen the rights you hold over your own data.

The point of this is to make sure sensitive or private information about you and your children stays safe. Whilst it is similar to the current Data Protection Act in many ways, there are a few differences. Therefore we need to make a few changes at school to ensure we remain compliant.

One of these changes is that we have updated our Privacy Notice, which will soon be available on our website.

As part of our work to comply with GDPR, we will also be re-seeking active consent for the use of photographs or videos on our website, internal displays and other school materials.

We will also be reviewing how we contact you regarding school information. We need you to confirm that you are happy for us to use the details that you have provided to contact you via email, text, letter and telephone.

If you have any questions about how GDPR affects you, or how our school is preparing itself, you can contact Julie English c/o schooloffice@ourladyofpity.co.uk
